

OCCUPATIONAL SAFETY AND HEALTH POLICY STATEMENT

The objective of the company and its Directors is to ensure a safe and healthy workplace, free of incident and or accidents.

This object can only be achieved by close co-operation and consultation between management, employees, contractors, the client and others.

The Occupational Safety and Health Act 1984 defines the responsibilities of the Employer, Employees and Contractors with respect to Safety and Duty of Care within the workplace .The standards laid down in this Act and its associated Regulations and Codes of Practice are, within VM Drilling Pty Ltd and to be regarded as minimum standards only.

The Clients Occupational Safety and Health Policies and Procedures take precedent over and above VM Drillings Occupational Safety and Health Policies and Procedures.

VM Drilling Pty Ltd encourages everyone within the company to participate actively in the continuous improvement of our occupational safety and health performance.

Matthew May
Managing Director

Chris Vollmer
Director

VM Drilling Pty Ltd

Updated: 1st February 2008